

Jesus, the Way to Heaven

"It is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). Death is the door, both to heaven and to hell. To die in Jesus is to die in the way to heaven.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, 'Write blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' 'Yes,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them'" (Revelation 14:13).

"Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city" (Revelation 22:14).

JESUS IS THE WAY!
He Can Change Your Life for the Better.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT JESUS?

LESSON 1

- ◆ There's a way out of life's confusion and problems: Jesus Christ!
- ◆ He said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6).
- ◆ To everything that is truly good, both in this life and in the life to come...Jesus Christ is the way!

FINDING JESUS THE WAY

Following Jesus as "the way" involves more than just praising Him with our lips. He said, "And why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord', and do not do the things which I say" (Luke 6:46). "If you continue in My word, then you are My disciples indeed" (John 8:31).

The life and teaching of Jesus are found in the first four books of the New Testament - Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Other books of the New Testament are also the teaching of Jesus, for He revealed it by the Holy Spirit through men like Peter and Paul. Paul wrote, "If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord" (1 Corinthians 14:37).

Following Jesus as the way, therefore, requires a careful study of the New Testament and a determined effort to live as it directs.

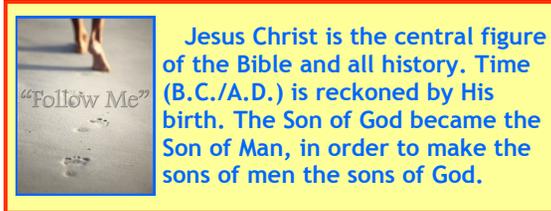

Jesus, the Way to a Better Life

Jesus stated His purpose in coming to earth in the following words, "I have come that they may have life, and that they have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Jesus provides this better life by offering the solution to the problems that make life difficult - guilt, self-pity and fear.

Jesus does not promise wealth or luxury, but He does assure us of a loving Father in Heaven who cares for His children and will provide the things they truly need. "Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we wear?'... For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you" (Matthew 6:31-33).

The happiest people in the world are those who have most completely committed themselves to following Jesus as the way. "Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory" (1 Peter 1:8).

Jesus, the Way to Forgiveness of Sins

Sin is a more serious threat to our well-being than any physical, economic or social danger that we face. Yet, all of us are guilty of sin and we are helpless on our own to remove its stain. Sin is a violation of God's law, and only God can forgive it. He has made provision for our forgiveness through Jesus. "In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Eph 1:7). "Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree" (1 Peter 2:24).

After His sacrifice for us, Jesus explained how those who are lost in sin can have remission of sins and be saved. "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem" (Luke 24:46-47).

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).

Jesus, the Way to God

Lost people need more than forgiveness of sins. They need to be restored to that close union with God which they lost by their sins. In sending Jesus into the world, "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself" (2 Corinthians 5:19). Jesus stated that one can reach God only through Him. He said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6).

Jesus, the Way out of Religious Confusion

Many who wish to follow Jesus are repelled by the multitude of churches and the conflicting doctrines taught by those who profess to be Christians. One does not have to be a part of this confusion. Jesus did not approve of it. In Matthew 16:18 Jesus promised, "I will build My church." We read of the beginning of His church in Acts, chapter 2. "And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved" (Acts 2:47).

The Lord is still adding those who are being saved to His church. If we are saved, we are in His church and united with all others who are in it. "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father over all" (Ephesians 4:4-6).

It is good for us to worship and work with other saved individuals who are bound with us in Christ by these unifying ties. But if we join to another body (denomination), accept another lord (religious authority), or adhere to another faith (creed), we are leaving the unity for which Jesus prayed in John 17:20-21.
